Spiritual Enrichment Program

2024-2025

Benedictine Peace Center
SACRED HEART MONASTERY
Yankton, South Dakota

Program Description

The Spiritual Enrichment Program includes eight Saturday morning gatherings (via Zoom) for dialogue on chapters of a book, an optional two-night retreat at a time convenient for you, with an option to meet with a spiritual director.

This year's book selection provides an inspiring and empowering guide for everyone struggling with their faith in tumultuous times. Wrestling with God poses provocative questions to help us find meaning and new ways to live an authentic faith amid an ever-changing world.

Drawing from his own life experience and a storehouse of literary, psychological, and theological insights, Ronald Rolheiser examines the fears and doubts that challenge us daily. It is in the struggles to find meaning, Rolheiser lays out a path for faith in a world struggling to find faith, but perhaps more importantly, he helps us find our own rhythm within which to walk that path.

About the Author

Ronald Rolheiser O.M.I. is a Roman Catholic priest and an internationally renowned speaker and writer. A specialist in the fields of spirituality and systematic theology, his weekly column is syndicated in more than seventy newspapers around the world. He is the author of several books, including The Holy Longing, a contemporary spiritual classic, which has sold more than 250,000 copies. Until 2020, he served as President of the Oblate School of Theology in San Antonio, Texas.

Dates/Topics

Dialogue on Zoom monthly, focusing on different chapters of the book each month.

Your Retreat

Choose the retreat option to schedule a convenient time for a personal silent retreat at the Peace Center. Guests will be welcomed on a space-available basis.

Retreatants are welcome to join the monastic community for liturgy. Meals may be enjoyed with the sisters or in silence. A spiritual direction session is optional.

Online gatherings are facilitated by the Benedictine Peace Center Staff.
